

Sharpak XL sharps container

The SHARPAK XL® is a specialist container aimed at theatre sharps disposal, in particular, where minimal invasive surgery procedures involve the use of long disposable instruments. Its large aperture combined with an overall extended body length facilitates the disposal of the very longest and bulkiest endoscopic instruments, trocars, chest drains, pipettes and other sharps.

The SHARPAK XL is approved to the British Standard BS7320:1990 and tested and certified in accordance with the provisions of the United Nations recommendations on the Transportation of Dangerous Goods, Chapter 9, UN3291 Clinical Waste, Unspecified, NOS.

The SHARPAK XL offers the following features:
